

Please stop the destruction of democracy caused by media monopolies who only make decisions based on economic values. Please open the media to more diverse voices, formats, and local coverage. And please show up at public hearings when you hold them.